

2nd Edition

Livestock Symposium

Franco-german

Stadthalle of KEHL

June 15, 2023

Cow productivity and longevity in a context of climate change

Day of conferences with experts

Program

9 a.m. : Reception with welcome coffee

9.30 am : Opening of the conference

9.45 : Start of the day with Serge Zaka, agro-climatologist: Climate change: what consequences and adaptations for milk production in Alsace and Baden-Württemberg?

©Serge Zaka

©Eduard Zentner

10.30 a.m.: Ing. agr. Eduard Zentner, expert for animal husbandry systems and stable climate technology at the HBLFA Raumberg-Gumpenstein: Heat stress in cattle husbandry - deficiencies, their impact and potentials

©Christian Koch

11.15 a.m.: Dr. Christian Koch, expert for animal health and animal nutrition at Hofgut Neumühle: Effects of weather extremes on animal welfare of dairy cows

©Luc Delaby

12 p.m.: Lunch

2 p.m.: Luc Delaby, development engineer and pasture management specialist at INRAe: Adaptation of feeding systems and herd management in the context of climate change

©Florian Leiber

3 p.m.: Dr. Florian Leiber, animal nutrition expert at FiBL: Feeding is the key to climate protection - but where is the lock?

©L.Dale & E.Leroux

4 p.m.: Estelle Leroux (CAA) & Dr. Dr. Laura Dale (LKV), Heat Stress in Alsatian and Baden dairy farms: Consequences for Dairy cows with consideration of housing systems. (Results of the KLIMACO project).

4.30 p.m. : Closing of the day

